CAN CRY NO MORE, WAILS HIS MOTHER

Little Warren McCarrick Is Gone, and Parents Are Heartbroken.

KIDNAPPING IS SUSPECTED

Big Reward Offered, and Police of Many Cities Are at nd now he is gone," wailed Mrs loye, when detectives to-night told r that their search for seven-yearold Warren McCarrick, who disap-beared on Thursday, had not developed any clues to his whereabouts. It is ther kidnapped of killed. Petectives be watching every mail delivery at accarrick's home in the hope that tose who have the boy, if he has been drapped, will make an offer to return lim to get the $1,000 reward offered a City Treasurer William McCoach. Spiritualists and fortune-tellers are estening the McCarrick home with Ters to locate the boy, who has been issing since Thursday evening.

Detectives Find Nothing.

ozen special policemen worked all day on the case and found nothing. Some of the detectives went into New Jersey following up a report that a farmer's wagen similar to that in which the boy is thought to have been carried away had been seen crossing a ferry, others went to the boat-houses along anything definite.

ry 'cine' brought to the attenf the detectives is being investino matter how absurd it seems st glance. Certain houses and amma if he could, but cannot believe

We can look

you squarely in the eye.

way through.

In beauty of design, in perfection of workmanship, in honesty of construction, the steel office equipment that bears the Library

We start right, because we use only the best materials. We end right, because we use our heads as well as our hands all the

We could use cheap material and no one would know it but ourselves. But we can

"Our steel office equipment is unrivalled. Material is best. Construction is best, As for finish, design and workmanship,

We can say that of everything we make of steel -card index cabinets, vertical units,

horizontal units, counter-height units, trans-

Ask for catalog, "Steel Card and Filing

look you squarely in the eye and say:

they speak for themselves."

fer sections and storage shelving.

Library Bureau

Card and filing systems. Office, library and bank equipment.

Unit card and filing cabinets in wood and steel.

Mutual Building, Richmond

Telephone: Madison 4281

Bureau name plate is in a class by itself.

THE CHANGE in the seasons is marked in our store as in the open fields, only we anticipate and give a good hunch to backward spring.

Spring fashions for man and boy are in full bloom; our furnishing goods have blossomed; hats are in full flower. Come and gather a bouquet for your wardrobe.

Suits, $15 to $40.

Spring overcoats, $18 to $30.

Our special suits at $20 fill most any require-

Headquarters for Boy Scouts and for everything boys wear, for work or play.

Mrs. McCiarrack was unable to ge further, for she chocked, and her husband told the rest of the story. st glance. Certain houses and st glance. Certain houses are being watched. The pensave changed their tactics of ling suspects. At first those who under police suspicion we can be a suspicion with the health of the control of ling suspects. At first those who under police suspicion we can be a suspicion with the health of ling suspects. At first those who under police suspicion we can be a suspicion with the health of ling suspects. At first those who under police suspicion we can be a suspicion with the health of ling suspects. At first those who under police suspicion we can be a suspicion with the health of ling suspects. At first those who under police suspicion we can be a suspicion which the health of ling suspects. At first those who under police suspicion who had the suspicion which we can be a suspicion which we can be any searched in these cities. In many sects with the search of the suspection downtown, but falled the deet to suspect the suspicion which we should be a searched or the police of this city went into the specified of the suspection downtown, but falled the deet to suspect the suspicion which we search as a final to the police of this city went into the system of the suspection downtown, but falled the deet to suspect the suspect of the cities. In many sects with the suspect of the cities, in many sects of the suspect of the cities. In many sects with the suspect of the police of this city went into the spect of the suspect of the police of the suspect of the being watched. The po-changed their tactics of clusion that he has been kidnapped. We but three weeks ago we decided him go tut for a little white each The streets were full of snow, hen he saw his father put on his he asked for some, too.

Last She Saw of Him. want to splash around just like He got the boots and last Thurs-I want to splash around just like.

He got the boots and last Thurswanted to put them on and go out old him to wait until the sun got strong and then he could go. He apped out when I was not looking, Germantown business men. This man and that was the last I ever saw of was selling potatoes, according to the business men, and seemed to be in a highly nervous condition. He follows the description of the wagon driver seen taiking to young McCarrick the afternoon the boy disappeared.

The "Interlocking" Hill. The interlocking directorates bill includes a provision to prohibit directors in various corporations selling to companies in which they are directors. The definitions bill embodies such definitions

Action to Define the provision to prohibit directors in various corporations selling to companies in which they are directors. Washington, Man and the proposed of the courter of the proposed commission of the future of the proposed commission of the proposed commission to institute investigations on its own initiative as to whether corporations operate in vicilation of the Shurman act, and if a report to the Shurman act, and if the President of the Shurman act, and the shurman act and the shurman act, and the shurman act and the shu tiveness.

"A trade commission which could undertable no investigation except by direction of the President, Attorney-General or either house of Congress, as the House bill proposes, will be of little value," said Schator Robinson, of Arkansas, a member of the Interstate Commerce Committee, to-day. "If the proposed commission is to have no more authority than that, why have one." The Burcau of Corporations as now constituted is capable of carrythe fateau of Corporations as now constituted is capable of carrying on such investigations very well."
It is considered probable that no report on the Senate bill will be made because of the practical decision to incorporate all contemplated trust legislations. islation in one measure. Besides pro-viding for the trade commission the prevalent idea at this time in the Sen-ate committee is to aid a section to prohibit certain forms of interlocking directorates, and one to prohibit or regulate holding companies. Bills originally proposed to define acts which would constitute restraints of trade would constitute restraints of trade and destructive competition practically have been abandoned.

"There is no necessity of holding Congress here to consider and pass one trust bill, and then to take up and pass another and still another," Senator Robinson said. "I find that is the growing sentiment of the Democrats as well as among many of the Republication. as well as among many of the Republi Other members of the Senate committee have expressed similar views, and are urging them upon the President as the wise course and the one necessary to expedite the business be-

Oppose All Four fifts.

New York, March 16.—The board of directors of the Merchants' Association York, an organization with a ship of 3,600 leading business n, adopted resolutions at a meeting day, asking that Congress postpone antitrust legislation until the next

A special committee, acting with illiam A. Marble, the president, will esent the views of the association to oncress. This committee is composed lienry R. Towne, president of the ale and Towne Manufacturing Complex Vision I. Marshall president of the land towner with the complex of the comp pany; Waldo H. Marshall, president of the American Locemotive Company; V. H. Childis, president of the Ameri-an Coal Froducts Company; William Gladding, vice-president of the forder Condensed Milk Company, and

To Cure a Cold in One Day W. GROVE'S signature is on each

Most Popular School Teacher

THE TIMES-DISPATCH VOTING COUPON

Mr. F. E. Cosby Conservatory of Music Mrs. K. H. Hoffman Grace Arents Mr. Henry F. ThompkinsMadison Mr. John SimpsonJohn Marshall Mr. E. G. Routt John Marshall

BOATS ARE NAMED FOR NAVAL HEROES

Washington, March 16 .- The names of Porter, Tucker, Conyngham, Wadsworth, Jacob, Jones and Wainwright, prominent in the annals of American naval history, have been selected by

RESOLUTIONS OF RESPECT

RESOLUTIONS OF RESPECT

Richmond, Va., March 16, 1914.

AT A LARGELY ATTENDED SPEctal meeting of the Richmond Real Estate Exchange, held in its rooms at 11 o'clock this morning, the death of MR. N. W. BOWE, a member of the Exchange, was announced, and many of those present expressed deep regret at his death and took occasion to testify to the many fine traits of his character. Among those who spoke were the following: Major Frank T. Sutton, Mr. H. Seldon Tavior, Mr. John T. Goddin, Mr. O. H. Funsten, Mr. J. B. Elam, Captain Lekoy E. Brown, and Mr. Henry S. Hutzler. On motion, duly seconded, the following resolution was unantmously adopted:

The Richmond Real Estate Exchange in special session this day assembled, learns with deep regret of the death of Mr. Nathaniel W. Howe, one of its members. In the death of Mr. Rowe we have lost a coworker and member whose place will be hard to fill. He was a man of the highest integrity, and in his dealings with his fellowman his word was as good as his bond. He had unbounded faith in the future of our city; he added it to rise from its ashes after 1865, and for more than a generation has been a power in its great development. Therefore be it

Resolved, That this Exchange extends to his family its most sincere sympathy; and be it further

Resolved, That a copy of these resolutions be sent them, and also be published in all of the daily papers of this city.

FRANK T. SUTTON, of this city.
FRANK T. SUTTON,

Chairman,
JOHN T. GODDIN,
JAMES B. ELAM,
AMOS M. GOVER,

F. M. BOYKIN,

Committee.

blankets, Write for rates and literature,

CROVE PARK INN Sunset Mountain, Asheville, N. C.

Save Gas By the New Process Gas Range $12.50 to $40

McKee Refrigerators and Bloch Go-Carts NOW ON SALE

Jones Bros. & Co. 1418-1420 E. Main St. 1105 Hull St.

CAPT. R. S. WALKER

and Educator.

[Special to The Times-Dispatch.]
Orange, Va., March 16.—The funeral of Captain R. S. Walker, of Woodberry Forest, who died on Saturday of diabetes, at the University Hospital, University of Virginia, whence he had been taken on Tuesday, took place today at St. Thomas's Episcopal Church, at Orange, of which he was a vestryman. The body was brought down on the train from Charlottesville on Sunday and was met at the station at Orange by a deputation of boys from Woodberry Forest School, who took charge of the casket and accompanied it to the church, where it remained during the day and last night, affectionately watched over in turn by them until the last funeral rites to-day.

The school in a body followed the remains to Charage of the casket and second sec [Special to The Times-Dispatch.] The school in a body followed the remains to Graham Cemetery, near the village, where the interment took place.
The clergymen officiating were the

The clergymen officiating were the Rev. Robert S. Carter, rector of St. Thomas's Episcopal Church; Rev. Thomas Hubert-Jones, chaplain at Woodberry Forest and rector of St. Andrew's Chapel at that school, and the Rev. John S. Hansbrough, the former rector of St. Thomas's Church.

Thore was an immensable large at mer rector of St. Thomas's Church.

There was an immensely large attendance at the funeral, for Captain Walker was knewn as a progressive, public spirited citizen. To the outside world his unflagging energy and irrepressible enthusiasm appeared to be his most characteristic trait, but to those who knew him best the most distinguishing fact in his life was a simple, direct and frank religious faith, so vital and so real that daily communion with God was to him as natural as ordinary dally intercourse with those about him.

those about him.

Robert Stringfellow Walker was born in Madison County, Va., on October 19, 1840. His boyhood was passed on a large estate cultivated by slave labor, amid surroundings familiar to hundreds of Southern homes before the Civil War. He grew up to be a fearless horseman, a fine shot, a loyal friend, and withal an earnest Christian. Civil War. He grew up to be a fearless horseman, a fine shot, a loyal friend, and withal, an earnest Christian.
For his early education he was indebted more to the influence of a cultivated home than to the instruction he received in an old field school. He entered Randolph-Macon College, then situated at Roydton, Va., in September, 1859. After two sessions, he left college in June, 1861, to take his place in the Southern army. At first he served on the staff of General William E.
Jones, but in the spring of 1863 joined the command of the famous chieftani, John S. Moshy, under whom he served until the close of the war. After repeatedly declining promotion, he was at last appointed to a captaincy for "deeds of consplexious daring and valorintelligence and high moral character," Colonel Mosby's letter of recommendation closing as follows: "If brilliant courage, unblemished honor and devotion to duty constitute titles to advancement, then no one can prefer which he is now recommended."

After the close of the war he returned to his home, but a very differ-

Thus was laid the foundation for the present institution, which, as preparatory to the best university, is second to none in the country. The erection of the present group of buildings was begun in 1889, modeled after the best English schools, as well as those in the North and East in the United States, but distingthe Section 1989.

the North and East in the United States, but distinctly Southern in character. Its influence in educational circles has been felt throughout the South.

He is survived by his wife and six sons—J. Carier Walker, M. A., University of Virginia, headmaster Woodberry Forest School; John S. Walker, M. A., University of Va.; Joseph G. Walker, Frank S. Walker, B. S., Virginia Polytechnic Institute, all of whom live at Woodberry Forest: Albert Stuart Woodberry Forest; Albert Stuart Walker, E. E., university, now with the General Electric Company at Lynn, Mass., and Robert S. Walker, Jr., of

New York, March 16.—Packey Hommey stopped Kid Fallon, of Foston, in the fourth round of their fight to-night at the National Sporting Club, the Hub youngster's seconds throwing up the towel in that session to save the loser from further punishment. Fallon weighed 129 pounds and Hommey 123 pounds.

weighed 129 pounds and Hommey 123 pounds.

In the semifinal bout Billy Bennett, the Irish lightweight, won an easy victory from Jack Read, of Australia. Each boy weighed in at 136% pounds. In the opening bout of ten rounds Mike Farrell and liob Mack, two middle weights, slugged furiously for the full distance. The former did the better work. Their weights were 166 pounds each.

OBITUARY

John Waller Holladay.

[Special to The Times-Dispatch.]

Holladay, Va., March 16.—John Waller Holladay, one of the most prominent citizens of this county, died this morning in Georgia, where he had been for some time in charge of the Virginia-Carolina Sulphur Mines, Pneumonia, following measles, was the cause of death.

John Waller Holladay was a son of James Minor Holladay and Lucy Daniel Lewis. He was the leading member of the Keith Presbyterian Church at Holladay. He leaves a widow, who was a daughter of A. N. Harris, and four daughters and one young son. The body will be buried on Wednesday at the Holladay family burying-ground near this place.

Mrs. Martha Wood.

Washington, Va., March 16.—Mrs. Martha Wood, widow of George Wood, of this county, who died yesterday at the home of her son, W. G. Wood, will be buried at the family burying-ground, near Sperryville, in Rappahannock County. Mrs. Wood was a daughter of Barnett Grimsley, the noted Baptist minister, and a sister of the

A Splendid Assortment of Latest Dances in

Final Tributes of Respect Paid Player Rolls

88 Note

Turkey Trots, Hesitations, One-Steps, Bostons, Maxixes.

Come in and let us play them for you. New and pleasing numbers arriving daily.

Change of Date PAVLOWA

the premiere danseuse, will appear at the Academy Thursday, April 2, with Novikoff and Complete Sym-phony Orchestra. Mammoth com-pany of 86. Richmond management Mrs. Groner and Mrs. Hawksworth, Scats, $1 to $3. On sale Monday, March 28, at

The Corley Company

The House That Made Richmond Musical

213 East Broad Street.

Bearing the Committee of the Committee o bout seventy-seven years old. The uneral services will be in the Sperry ille Eaptist Church.

Mrs. Mary Butler.

[Special to The Times-Dispatch.]
Fredericksburg, Va., March 16.—Mrs.
Mary Butler, widow of Atwell Butler, of Stafford County, dled a few days ago, aged eighty-one years. She is survived by six children, two sons and four daughters, all of Stafford County.
The funeral took place on Sunday afternoon, conducted by Rev. R. P. Rixey.

The board to-day also went on record as opposing all four of the bills thus far announced in their present form, kinown as "Sherman law definition bill," the "trades relations bill," and the interlocking directorate bill," and the interlocking directorate bill," and the interlocking and the commission bill," in the opinion of the association, and in its present form the "interlocking directorate bill," in the colinion of the association, and in its present form the "interlocking directorate bill," and the interlocking directorate bill," and the interlocking directorate bill, and the interlocking

WOODWARD.—Died, after a severe illness of ten days of pneumonia, at her brother's residence, 2111 West Main Street, MISS LIZZIE WOODWARD. She is survived by her mother, one sister, Miss Ellen, and two brothers, E. C. Woodward, of this city, and Marion Woodward, of Portsmouth, Va.

Funeral from the residence THIS (Tuesday) AFTERNOON at 4:30 oclock.

HOLLADAY,—Died, Monday, March 18, at Villa Rica, Ga., JOHN WALLER HOLLADAY, of Holladay, Va., Burial at Prospect Hill, Va., WED-NESDAY, March 18.

FUNERAL NOTICE

CLARKE.—The funeral of R. T. CLARKE, who died March 16, at his residence, 1505 Beverly Street, will take place from Epworth Church WEDNESDAY, March 18, at 3:30 P. M. Interment in Riverview.

"He is gone, but not forgotten. May he rest in peace." BY HIS WIFE.

Right Now!

Make it a point to drink freely of WHITE ROCK.

Let it become a habit with you—a habit which will grow throughout the year.

There's vim, vigor, and virility in every glass of sparkling WHITE ROCK.

> "There's Health in White Rock"

Rountree-Sutherland-Cherry, corp. Furniture and Housefurnishing Cash or Credit 111 W. Broad